

I want the strongest possible legislation to support the no-call list. It doesn't seem to be working very well, but it has helped some.